

Visegrád Anthropologists' Network (V4 Net): (Membership – January, 2019)

The Network was launched in Halle on 9th October 2017 with the following participants:

Broz, Ludek (Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague)
Buchowski, Michał (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań)
Buzalka, Juraj (Comenius University, Bratislava)
Feischmidt, Margit (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest)
Halemba, Agnieszka (University of Warszawa)
Hann, Chris (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale)
Henig, David (University of Kent at Canterbury)
Kürti, László (University of Miskolc)
Lis, Aleksandra (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań)
Lubaś, Marcin (Jagiellonian University Kraków)
Malewska-Szałygin, Anna (University of Warszawa)
Mikuš, Marek (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale)
Pine, Frances (Goldsmiths, University of London)
Pusztai, Bertalan (University of Szeged)
Soler, Elena (Charles University Prague)
Sosna, Daniel (University of West Bohemia, Plzeň)
Stewart, Michael (University College London)
Thelen, Tatjana (University of Vienna)

The following joined the Network at the Conference "Visegrád Belongings: Freedoms, Responsibilities and Everyday Dilemmas" held on 7-8 June 2018:

Brocki, Marcin (Jagiellonian University, Cracow)
Fosztó, László (The Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities, Cluj-Napoca)
Kalb, Don (University of Bergen; University of Utrecht)
Pasięka, Agnieszka (Charles University, Prague)
Robbins, Jessica (Wayne State University, Detroit)
Sárkány, Mihály (MTA Research Centre for the Humanities, Budapest)
Skalnik, Petr (University of Hradec Králové)
Yalçın-Heckmann, Lale (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale)

The following have joined the Network as postdoctoral researchers (based at the MPI in Halle):

Emma Greeson
Joanna Mroczkowska
Gergely Pulay
Nikolaos Olma
Michal Sipos
Kristóf Szombati