

Emmy Noether Guest Lecture Series 2017

The Bureaucratization of Islam and its Socio-Legal Dimensions in Southeast Asia

Emmy
Noether-
Programm

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft

Friday | 07.04.2017 | Saskia Schaefer | FU Berlin

Debating True Islam and Fragmenting Indonesian Society: discourses on Ahmadiyya and Shia in Indonesia

Friday | 12.05.2017 | Alexander Blechschmidt | Universität Zürich

“A Bunch of Rich Kids?” On activism, social milieu, and atheism(s) in the Philippines

Wednesday | 17.05.2017 | Frauke Kandale | FU Berlin / AFRASO Frankfurt

Chinese Muslim Converts and the Malaysian State: the bureaucracy of conversion in Malaysia

Wednesday | 24.05.2017 | Catherine Larouche | MPI for Social Anthropology / McGill University

The Challenges of Doing Good: Muslim charitable organizations and voluntarism in North India

Thursday | 01.06.2017 | Kerstin Steiner | La Trobe University, Melbourne

Ritual or Manual? Past, present and future of Zakat management in Malaysia

Friday | 02.06.2017 | Kerstin Steiner | La Trobe University, Melbourne

Islam, Law and the State in the Philippines: the regulatory framework

Friday | 09.06.2017 | Thomas Kirsch | University of Konstanz

Power Writ Large: bureaucratic literacy, networking, and dis/connection

Monday | 12.06.2017 | 16:00–18:00 | Kristina Grossmann | Universität Passau

Muslim Women’s Rights Activists and the Introduction of the Islamic Criminal Law Code (Qanun Jinayat) in Aceh, Indonesia

Thursday | 22.06.2017 | Rosa Cordillera Castillo | Berlin Graduate School Muslim Cultures and Societies

The Bangsamoro Collective Memory and Its Traction among Non-elite Moro Islamic Liberation Front Adherents in the Southern Philippines

Friday | 30.06.2017 | Ario Seto Hardjana | Goethe-Universität Frankfurt / Universitas Indonesia, Jakarta

Vocabulary Battles in Indonesian Islamic Social Media: hardliners vs. moderates

Friday | 13.10.2017 | Iza Hussin | University of Cambridge

Colonial Conflations: translation, comparison, and the making of Islamic law

Wednesday | 18.10.2017 | Martin Slama | Austrian Academy of Sciences

Bureaucratic Islam Contested: examples from Indonesian online/offline realms

Friday | 20.10.2017 | Mark Graham | Stockholm University

Bureaucracy, Suspicion and Integration: Muslims in the Swedish welfare state

Friday | 27.10.2017 | Holger Warnk | Goethe-Universität Frankfurt

The Development of the Islamic Bureaucracy in Malaysia 1975–2017

Tuesday | 07.11.2017 | Johannes Quack | Universität Zürich

The Rationalization of Hinduism and its Socio-Individual Dimensions in South Asia

Friday | 24.11.2017 | Kostas Retsikas | SOAS, University of London

The Forbidden Share: notes towards understanding a theo-economy in contemporary Indonesia

Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Emmy Noether Guest Lecture Series 2017 | 14:00–16:00

Seminar Room (New Building) | MPI for Social Anthropology

Advokatenweg 36 | 06114 Halle/Saale | www.eth.mpg.de

Organiser: Dominik Müller