

Max-Planck-Institut für ethnologische Forschung
Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Environmental Rights in Cultural Context (ERCC)¹
Online Talks (Spring Programme 2021)

Thursday 5 to 7 pm CET

Organizer: Dirk Hanschel (Max Planck Fellow)

Online-Seminar Room: <https://conf.dfn.de/webapp/conference/97966198>

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| 04 March | Desirée Kumpf, MPI Halle: "Environmental rights in agriculture: The case of organic tea plantations in India" |
| 11 March | [Planning session (preparation of LSA roundtable; consolidation of ERCC group; publications and visibility, communication)] |
| 18 March | Juan Auz, Hertie School of Governance, Berlin: "Human Rights-Based Climate Litigation: A Latin American Cartography" |
| 25 March | [Internal PhD workshop] |
| 1 April | Discussion of draft ERCC working paper (Hanschel/Dashpurev/Kedir Idris/Prada Uribe) |
| 08 April | Ngozi Chinwa Ole, Redeemers University, Ghana: discussion of Humboldt fellowship draft application |
| 15 April | Ernst Halbmayr, University of Marburg: "'The Territory as Victim'. Ontological Conflicts and Reparations for Indigenous Victims of the Colombian Civil War." |
| 22 April | Paschaline Nsiah-Asare, with an introduction by Joseph Allan MacDougald, both University of Connecticut: "Too Many Crabs in the Bucket: An Explorative Analysis on Integrating Displaced Power Reform In West Africa" |

¹ Please check our webpage at <https://www.eth.mpg.de/ercc> for additional information. Anyone interested in accessing and joining our discussions is invited to send a message to hanschel@eth.mpg.de. I am happy to admit new participants on an individual basis whilst maintaining the personal and interactive spirit of our interdisciplinary group.

29 April	Lucie Buffavand, Institut des Mondes Africains, France: “Divinity's land or government's land? Mela's view over land ownership in the face of dispossession (Ethiopia)”
6 May (afternoon)	Online Workshop on Environmental Rights in Latin America
13 May	[public holiday]
20 May	Arne Harms, MPI Halle: “Striving for less bad futures: Protest, Ethics and Law among Climate Activists”
Between 27 and 30 May	Law and Society Association (LSA) Roundtable Discussion on “Environmental Rights in Cultural Context – Perspectives from Law and Anthropology”
3 June	Follow-up session on LSA Roundtable: Review and Preview
10 June	Reetta Toivanen, University of Helsinki: "Whose sustainability are we talking about? The Arctic and its peoples."
17 June	Paulo Ilich Bacca, National University of Columbia: “The Double Bind and the Reverse Side of the International Legal Order: Talking with Silvia Rivera Cusicanqui and El Colectivo”
24 June	Carlos David Londoño Sulkin, University of Regina, Canada: “The forest in the self: on the role of the non-human in an Amazonian account of morality”
1 July (complete day, large seminar room²)	Potential authors’ workshop on book project “Environmental Rights in Cultural Context – Perspectives from Law and Anthropology”
8 July	Silja Klepp: “Climate Change Adaptation as an Environmental Justice Issue: The Case of Kiribati”
15 July	Planning session: next steps

² Subject to COVID 19 restrictions as may apply.